APARTMENT ASSOCIATION OF NORTHEAST WISCONSIN: CODE OF ETHICS

The Apartment Association of Northeast Wisconsin (AANW) has organized for the purpose of advancing the general welfare of the residential rental industry in Northeast Wisconsin and through our affiliation with the Wisconsin Apartment Association (WAA), the general welfare of this industry throughout the state of Wisconsin.

The Apartment Association of Northeast Wisconsin recognizes the role its members play in meeting the housing needs of Northeast Wisconsin, and pledges to our residents, our municipalities, and to other housing providers to maintain the highest possible standards of quality and service. The AANW dedicates the efforts of its members, executive board, and officers to the welfare of its member; to providing safe, healthy, and secure home for residents of AANW owned or managed units; and to protect the human values of all residents of rental units, such as dignity, pride, and security.

Therefore, members of AANW and WAA commit ourselves to the principals and standards of the organization as follows:

WE SHALL uphold the highest professional standards of integrity, honesty, and fairness.

WE SHALL continually strive to better the industry by participating in and promoting education and professionalism.

WE SHALL promote the spirit of and comply with all applicable Fair Housing Laws that we may provide equal housing opportunities for all.

WE SHALL properly maintain and safeguard all property under our care, meeting or exceeding all applicable housing and health or safety codes, ordinances, and regulations.

WE SHALL respect the rights of others by preserving and enhancing private property rights and the free enterprise system.

WE SHALL comply with federal, state, and local laws and regulations pertaining to our industry.

WE SHALL actively seek the help of and cooperate with local, state, and federal officials to protect our properties and our communities from crime, drug traffic, and vandalism.

WE SHALL function cooperatively with our WAA of which the AANW is a member in good standing.

I, _____, as a landlord/associate member of the
